2019-2020 Board of Directors - Call for Nominations

Nominations are currently being accepted for the 2019-2020 term, which commences on September 1, 2019 and concludes on August 31, 2020. Currently, the President-Elect, Treasurer, Programs, Communications, Membership, and Sponsorship positions are open for nominations. The Secretary, Education, and Professional Development positions will not be vacant until the 2020-2021 term. Members in good standing may be nominated for any of the elected positions that are currently available.

The Director positions are elected for a two (2) year term with a maximum of two (2) terms in each position. The Treasurer and Secretary are elected to a two (2) year term with a maximum of two (2) terms in each position. The President-Elect serves in that office for one (1) year and then automatically assumes the office of the President in the subsequent year. At the end of that term, each President remains on the Board for another year as Immediate Past President.

Nominations for any of the elected positions may be self-proposed or by petition and must include all data as outlined in the attached Nomination Form. The closing date for submissions is Thursday, May 9, 2019. The Nominations and Elections Committee will evaluate all nominations in accordance with the parameters and procedures outlined in the chapter's by-laws. The Committee will then identify a qualified slate of candidates for approvals as required.

Refer to the attached Nomination Form for details on the nomination process, Board responsibilities and eligibility requirements. Please also note that additional volunteer opportunities are available, and some Board appointments do not require a vote by the membership. For questions regarding volunteer opportunities or the nomination process, please contact me directly at (818) -246-3481 or dlmorris@pcl.com.

Nomination Form - Supplemental Information

A. Roles and Responsibilities

All Board members must participate in monthly Board meetings and meet the minimum participation requirement as set forth in chapter by-laws. Additionally, Directors and Chairs are expected to conduct monthly meetings with their committees as necessary to successfully meet their respective goals.

1. President-Elect

The President-Elect assists the President in carrying out the functions of that office, including presiding over meetings of the chapter and the Board of Directors in the President's absence. In the event that the office of the President becomes vacant before the term expires, the President-Elect shall assume the position. The President-Elect also participates on the Leonardo Awards Program sub-committee, chairs the Nominations and Elections Committee and serves as an ex-officio member of all standing committees. The President-Elect is active in recruiting volunteers, leads the planning and budgeting efforts for the subsequent term and supports the President with other special projects as required. The President-Elect also serves on the executive committee.

2. Treasurer

The Treasurer serves as a member of the chapter's Executive Board, participates in the development of the annual budget, and oversees the financial integrity of the Chapter. In addition, the Treasurer assures the production of financial reports and an annual audit, serves as chairperson of the Finance Committee, and performs all duties incident to the office of Treasurer.

3. Director-at-Large / Programs

SMPS/LA hosts a number of events a year including market sector roundtables and client panels. The Programs Director is in charge of managing these events and is responsible for developing topics, securing speakers, and venue coordination. The Programs Director and its Committee offers the benefit of direct contact with clients and potential clients through requests for speakers and program planning, as well as the opportunity to drive the industry knowledge that is presented for the A/E/C representatives that attend our events.

4. Director-at-Large / Membership

The Membership Director is responsible for initiatives related to new member recruitment and member retention. This includes the planning and organizing of bi-annual new member events and the annual membership drive. The Membership Director oversees member recognition programs and serves as ambassador to welcome new and potential members attending seminars and programs. The Membership Director also tracks membership expirations, renewals and other statistics with National office, and serves as the point of contact for questions regarding membership and other member benefits.

5. Director-at-Large / Sponsorship

The Sponsorship Director is a strategic participant in the success of the Chapter's finances. The Sponsorship Director is focused on procuring sponsors and strategic partners for seminars, programs, special events as well as annual sponsorships. The Sponsorship Director coordinates sponsor benefits with technology and communications committees as required. The Sponsorship Director also follows up on sponsor satisfaction and makes recommendations to improve and supplement existing offerings.

6. Director-at-Large / Communications (1 Co-Director Position Available)

The Communications Director is responsible for developing a communication plan and assisting all of the other committees in marketing communications and promotion including event announcements, email blasts to all members, direct mail postcards, website maintenance, and the quarterly newsletter. There is always creative work to be done and this role will enable you to enhance and learn skills that will assist you on the job. The Co-Directors will work together as a team to lead the Communications Committee.
